Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 6/29/2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
2. Applicant argues, see pages 8-11 of the remark, column 23 at lines 46-49 of Okada says "It is common for such information to be assigned once in a GOP, which is to say once every 0.5 seconds of reproduction time" does not necessarily mean that the decoding time stamp and the presentation time stamp occur every 0.5 seconds. However, the claim does not require the decoding time stamp and the presentation time stamp occur every 0.5 seconds. The claim only requires "data packets within a fixed packet interval of the stream", and 0.5 seconds of the reproduction time is clearly a fixed packet interval.
3. Another interpretation of the "fixed packet interval" is that the basis unit for the DVD is sector, and each sector contains 2048 bytes, and each packet of is 2048 bytes see figure 5a-5b. Therefore, 2048 bytes of can be interpreted as a claimed "fixed packet interval".
